

I strongly urge the FCC to KEEP the restrictions on the number of TV and other media stations one can own. It is bad for an open society to have a small number of media owners. We need a broader number of media opinions not smaller, monopolized stations.